- NDTV and its team has won numerous awards and accolades.

The Programme

The programme is an apprenticeship that combines the elements of hands-on training and classroom learning.

In the classroom

Learn the practice of Broadcast Journalism in a well-equipped studio with state-of-the-art facilities. Teaching modules have been designed to cover all aspects of Broadcast Journalism ranging from the basics of journalism and pre-production to editing, writing, anchoring and presentation.

On the field

The Training Programme offers candidates a unique opportunity of real-time experience. The curriculum is woven into an apprenticeship under NDTV mentors in the workplace as a real work day. All mentors are senior NDTV media professionals. While on the job, apprentices will learn how to handle the pressure of big stories, breaking news and demanding deadlines.

The Programme

The Programme is designed for 10 months

First the candidates will go through formal instructions in classrooms and workshops devoted to writing, camerawork, voice training, editing and more. Click here to view the curriculum of the Training Programme.

Then they will be placed as apprentices to train under mentors and finally as interns in different departments of NDTV

Candidates can apply for the first batch starting in April 2010 or the second batch starting in August 2010.

Each batch has 40 seats

The total fee for the programme is Rs 1.9 lakhs (plus taxes applicable) (to be paid in full after the final selection)
If required candidates can propose an installment plan for the fee after the final selection is announced

All apprentices will be certified by NDTV upon completion of the Programme

This Programme prepares candidates for a career in the broadcast industry as journalists and media professionals
